2026-27 BMW OWNERS ANONYMOUS BOOK

Emergency Help System

TO THE CALLER—While the services offered are first and foremost for emergency situations, there may be times when you simply need advice or a place to change your oil. Please state whether an emergency exists or not. While socializing with other BMW MOA members can be a legitimate reason for calling a number in the book, it is the caller's responsibility to be sensitive to and aware of the individual limits to that socializing, as presented by the host.

TO THE HOST—We suggest you ask the caller for their BMW MOA number and determine their need. Extending your services and/or hospitality is at your discretion. It is not possible for BMW MOA to control the use of the system or to be responsible for that use. We can only urge our members not to abuse the system in any way.

EXPLANATION OF CODES

The following are the codes used in the Anonymous phone listings. The Anonymous Emergency Help System has no bed & breakfast function; we ask that all members avoid using the system in this way. While there will always be gracious members of the BMW MOA who are willing to allow the use of a spare bedroom or sheltered bedroll space, the request to be able to use this space should always be regarded as a seldom used privilege, rather than a less expensive way to cross the country!

ANONYMOUS LISTING CODES

b - sheltered bedroll space	p - some parts available
c - camping or tent space	r - spare room
d - will travel to help depending on situation and time	sp - special bmw interest
e - services emergency only, excluding kk	ss - storage space
kk - coffee & conversation	t - truck or trailer available
m - mechanical help offered	ws - space to work on motorcycle
	wt - working tools

"I've had several encounters through the BMW Owners Anonymous book.

The one that stands out most is when I got a call from an MOA member whose Slash 5 had lost its transmission about 40 miles away. He had the bike towed to my house, and we assessed the issue. He was an 80-year-old fellow who had travelled from the east coast on his Slash 5. I had a spare Slash 6 transmission available and after an evening meal we pulled the old transmission. I had a spare room, and he spent the night comfortably.

The next morning, I fixed breakfast and by 11:00 had the transmission in place with a modification to the neutral switch wiring, and he was on his way. I shipped his old transmission back to his house, and he called to confirm he had a safe trip home.

Very satisfying use of the BMW Owners Anonymous book!"

– Larry Stonestreet #21583

"While coming home from the National in Tennessee in 2025, my wife's sidecar battery died on the side of a highway. I used the BMW Owners Anonymous book to find someone local. He brought his trailer, a battery out of his own bike and a jumper pack to where we were located. The bike started right up after a bit, and he told us to send it back to us once we got home. Sent it back with a bottle of his favorite beverage. Very grateful for the assistance."

– Scott D. Clark #69422

"The first time I used the BMW Owners Anonymous book was way back in the '90s on a cross-country trip. The bike started making a funny sound somewhere in Ohio because the starter gear had become disconnected from the flywheel. The guy picked me up, took me to his house and fixed my bike. They let me stay there overnight and his wife chatted with me in the living room and he worked on the bike. They fed me two meals and sent me on my way.

The next time was 2015 on a cross-country trip heading through the Arizona desert. I got a flat tire, had an old BMW Owners Anonymous book, called a guy who's wasn't even in the current book anymore, but he came and picked me up on a trailer anyway. He let me crash at his place, then the next day trailered me all the way from Winslow to Phoenix to a shop to get my tire replaced."

– Frank Kadel #51412

"At 6 AM on July 3, 2023, I hit diesel fuel and oil after a big rig crash happened earlier on I-10 in Texas in the middle of nowhere. I had motorcycle coverage from AAA, AMA, HOG and MOA. I tried AAA first since they were my insurance company. They said a vehicle would arrive within a half hour. Meanwhile, people who witnessed the crash pulled over and couldn't believe I was uninjured. Full ATGAT including a Helite Turtle 2 vest worked great! They helped me right the bike on the side of the highway as I waited for roadside assistance. My BMW K 1200 LT was not really in bad shape due to the slippery surface. AAA never showed after eight hours and repeated calls.

I took out my BMW Owners Anonymous book and starting making calls. The first three all went to voice mail. Then, the first caller returned my call explaining they were out for a morning ride and said they could help me out. I gave them my location and information and they said they would hitch up their trailer and be there ASAP. Howard and Ruby arrived with water and an enclosed trailer and they helped me get my bike loaded and tied down. They also took me to several rental places, hoping I could get a truck and trailer to haul the bike home. Since it was July 3rd, we ended up moving the bike to their barn for safekeeping. I rented a car to make the 1,500-mile ride home. I was able to get a hauling company to pick up my bike and deliver it to my garage and they were kind enough to take care of my LT for a month!

Such great MOA people! I am forever grateful for their kindness! All thanks to the BMW Owners Anonymous book! Cheers!"

– Bob Orso #213104

"My husband and I were heading home from a Motor Maids executive board meeting in Orlando when my 2003 F 650 CS died at a Circle K in Deland, Florida. Thank goodness for the BMW Owners Anonymous book.

Although my copy was a couple of years old, I was able to contact several members. Several could only offer emotional support, but I did get some tips on local dealers. Unfortunately, this was a Monday as well as a holiday, so the BMW shops were closed. Two members did show up with tools and were able to trace the problem to a faulty ignition wire. However, it could not be fixed in the convenience store parking lot. One of the members suggested a local shop, Deland Motor Sports, might be able to help and they were open on Monday! I called them and they arranged to pick up my bike and transport it to the shop. Though it was too late to repair the bike that day, the service manager scheduled work for the next day. Although it took an extra day to return to our home in south Mississippi, my bike has worked flawlessly since the repair.

If you are in the Deland area, check out Deland Motor Sports. Although they are not a BMW dealer, I did note several used BMWs for sale in their lot, they are a dealer for KTM, Benelli and Suzuki. The repair bill was reasonable. We got home just before a front brought cold rain to the gulf south. My heated grips and jacket were on that entire day!

Winter riding in the south has less traffic than during tourist season, but give yourself an extra day or two in case of bad weather or mechanical problems. Pack your heated gear and be ready for an adventure! What did we learn from this experience? Keep your BMW Owners Anonymous book or app current."

– Bonnie Gerald #218419

"I hadn't been stranded on a motorcycle in 40 years of long-distance riding until my final leg of a last minute, round-trip ride from St. Louis, Missouri, to Pendleton, Oregon, in October.

Not wanting to believe I had an issue in the proximal U-joint of the drive shaft I'd had inspected and lubed a while back (well, maybe quite a while back), I ignored a slight increase in vibration at the pegs that was limited to acceleration and deceleration. I thought I might nurse my 57,000-mile 2016, R 1200 RS back home, until a sudden low-speed lock-up of the rear wheel cut that thought short just as the sun was headed down on a Saturday night in York, Nebraska.

Who would have thought the BMW Owners Anonymous book would have a listing for a member with a trailer in York, Nebraska? I took that as a sign that I should try to get off the road before dark. But sure enough, 20 minutes later, William L. Lundy, a volunteer fire/EMT, electrician, Navy veteran and all-around nice guy showed up with a trailer he had bought years ago to get his daughter to college with all the essentials daughters deserve. Mr. Lundy said he kept the trailer just for instances such as this, saying he has now responded to Anonymous book calls more than once.

Mr. Lundy helped me horse the bike onto the trailer, park it at the local U-Haul affiliate (also great folks), and made sure I got into one of the local motels by the interstate that wouldn't rekindle an old interest in entomology.

After a good night's sleep, I remembered I had some inexpensive, motorcycle-specific, towing insurance through my MOA membership—100 miles to the nearest dealership. I then went ahead and set that up for a convenient time, and made it 109 miles (don't ask what the extra nine miles cost) to BMW Motorcycles of Omaha in Council Bluffs, Iowa, which was closed. But again, the BMW Owners Anonymous book to the rescue.

A text message to a local number got me the mobile number of the dealership's service manager who called back while on vacation to tell me where to park the bike and the name of his assistant manager, with whom he'd left a message about my bike.

On my return, folks at the shop were helpful in encouraging the locked rear wheel onto a trailer. With a smile on my face, I left them with some pizza money. (Remember—treat mechanics/technicians like your life depends on them.)

Many thanks to the generosity of Mr. Lundy and the mechanics at BMW Motorcycles of Omaha, and to the MOA for providing modern tools that get us all together."

BMW Owners Anonymous International Listings

Phone numbers start with the country code, preceded by a "+" sign, meaning that you first dial the international access code 011 from US/Canada (varies from other countries). Most countries add digits at the beginning of a number for domestic calls, indicated by brackets "(0)". Calling from outside that country, drop the bracketed digit; from inside the country, dial only the national phone number--starting with any bracketed digit.
